Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 6 children have been invited to visit the South Yorkshire Police Crucial Crew Event at the Lifewise Centre based at Hellaby Industrial Estate Rotherham.

The visit has been arranged for Wednesday 14th September 2022, the children will leave school at 9.00am and return to school for normal finishing time. As the children will be out all day they will require a packed lunch. If your child has free school meals and you would like the school to provide a packed lunch, please select on the online parental consent form and return by Thursday 8th September. The packed lunch will include a sandwich, fruit and a dessert; you will need to provide your child with drinks.

Please ensure that children are wearing their school uniform, an outdoor coat and sensible footwear.

The cost of the visit will be paid from the school fund account. Therefore, there will be no charge to parents.

Please complete the parental consent form by using the following link:
